ORDER

This matter is before the court on defendant's unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [42]. Trial was moved to December 11, 2017, upon the motion of the government. Counsel is unavailable on said date and has several other court dates previously scheduled. Defendant's counsel represents that defendant consents to the motion and acknowledges he understands the additional time may be excludable time for the purposes of the Speedy Trial Act. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Continue Trial [42] is granted as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for December 11, 2017, is continued to January 16, 2018.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and January 16, 2018, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: November 30, 2017.

BY THE COURT:

United States Magistrate Judge
